Form 990, Part III, 4a Legal Services and Access to Justice Support:
As the official, statewide entity recognized by the Supreme Court of Ohio for advancing access to justice, the Foundation collaborates with the Court and other statewide justice partners including the Ohio Judicial Conference, the Ohio State Bar Association, and Ohio legal aids to make Ohio more just and equitable.

The Foundation is the largest funder of civil legal aid in Ohio. Civil legal aid provides skilled lawyers to assist Ohioans who are low-income or lack access, helping them address critical civil legal matters that impact their ability to live safe, stable, and financially secure lives. Through its grantmaking, the Foundation funds efforts that help veterans secure benefits they have earned through their service; enable seniors to maintain their independence and financial security; empower survivors of domestic violence to achieve safety and security; support families impacted by substance abuse disorders; and ensure children receive the supports they need to succeed in school. Additionally, Foundation funding advances legal assistance for record sealing and drivers' license reinstatement efforts, which not only help individual Ohioans, but which strengthen Ohio's workforce.

In FY25, the Foundation oversaw distribution of $38.8 million in Interest on Lawyer's Trust Accounts (IOLTA), Interest on Trust Accounts (IOTA), and filing fee revenue, and granted out an additional $11.5 million from the Ohio Access to Justice Foundation Fund, thereby supporting legal services in Ohio with $50.3 million in funding. Over $1.7 million in grants was directed to helping newly arrived Ukrainians who fled the war in Ukraine stabilize themselves and their families in Ohio. As a result of the Foundation's funding, Ohio's civil legal service nonprofits succeeded in providing legal information, advice, or representation in over 65,000 civil matters and assisted over 153,000 Ohioans, including 64,016 children, 20,485 persons with disabilities, 4,400 veterans, and 20,822 seniors.

The Foundation also furthers its mission to improve access to justice by developing and supporting innovative services to help Ohioans who face legal challenges. The Foundation is the single, largest funder of Ohio Legal Help, an independent nonprofit organization which operates a state-of-the-art web portal that provides all Ohioans with meaningful access to reliable legal information and trustworthy legal referrals. Ohio Legal Help is available 24 hours a day in all 88 counties. During FY25, Ohio Legal Help served over 767,000 Ohioans across the state. The Foundation also operates the Ohio Justice Bus; a mobile civil legal office and technology hotspot that delivers brief advice clinics to low-income Ohioans in rural and other areas with limited access to civil legal services. See Schedule O, Part III, 4c, Pro Bono and Ohio Justice Bus for additional details.

Through Neighborhood Stabilization Grants, the Foundation promotes both development and redevelopment in targeted Ohio communities. Since 2017, the Foundation has awarded $14.9 million to support transactional legal work that empowers Ohioans and community groups to revitalize their neighborhoods. Neighborhood Stabilization grants have historically supported new business development, the implementation of solar power, and the restoration of affordable housing. Beginning in FY25, Ohio

Attorney Unclaimed Funds received from the Ohio Department of Commerce, Division of Unclaimed Funds, have allowed this program to further address housing needs statewide by supporting affordable and healthy housing initiatives, and promoting homeownership in partnership with legal aid and community organizations.

In addition, the Foundation offers two-year Justice for All Fellowships to outstanding law graduates who are passionate about public service and determined to address emergent legal needs. These young lawyers serve at civil legal service organizations across Ohio. Fellows focus their work on civil legal issues which adversely impact Ohioans who are low-income or who lack access to civil legal services. In FY25, Justice for All Fellows helped victims of predatory and fraudulent auto lending and sales practices; provided holistic legal services to survivors of sexual assault and mothers experiencing domestic violence in rural areas; represented unaccompanied minors in court; created accessible user-centered legal content, forms, and tools for formerly incarcerated Ohioans; and provided civil legal services to Ohioans impacted by the criminal legal system.

The Foundation also funds the Justice for All Summer Clerkship program which provides law students with hands-on experience in civil legal services by funding summer clerk positions at civil legal services organizations. This initiative helps cultivate the next generation of public interest lawyers while helping meet the critical legal needs of low-income Ohioans.

To support the recruitment and retention of talented civil legal aid attorneys, the Foundation additionally administers a Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP). The Foundation's LRAP provides up to $6,000 annually in educational loan repayment assistance to qualifying civil legal services attorneys. In FY25, 96 participants received over $304,000 in loan repayment assistance for federal and private educational loans, helping ensure that financial barriers do not prevent the best and brightest attorneys from serving low-income Ohioans who are in dire need of assistance.

Thanks to the generous support of the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation continues to expand and improve Ohio Legal Help, strengthen Ohio's civil legal aid organizations, and work to increase pro bono engagement across the state.

Beyond these core grant programs which the Foundation has operated for many years, in FY25, the Foundation also launched three new grant programs: a $1.29 million general operating grant program for civil legal service nonprofits, a $1 million grant program to serve the legal needs of documented immigrants, and a $450,000 pilot partnership grant program to address civil legal needs of families that are at risk of entering the foster care system.

The Foundation also oversees the administration of other grant funds directed at supporting Ohio's civil legal aid societies and furthering access to justice. This work ensures that grant funding is used effectively to help Ohioans who are low-income or who lack access overcome legal challenges so they can attain safety, stability, and financial security. The Foundation captures measurable data through its grant reporting, which is used to continually improve legal services and diminish the justice gap.

Finally, the Foundation serves as an advocate by educating state and national legislators and the public about the transformative role of civil legal aid on people's lives. The Foundation is honored to partner with Ohio's courts, bar associations, businesses, governmental agencies, social service agencies, and others to build statewide awareness of and support for civil legal aid and access to justice in Ohio.

Form 990, Part III, 4c, Pro Bono and Ohio Justice Bus

Through a generous grant from the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation works at the statewide level to increase pro bono participation in delivering civil legal services to low-income Ohioans. One of the successful statewide pro bono initiatives developed by the Foundation is the Ohio Justice Bus. During FY25, the Ohio Justice Bus held 102 clinics serving over 650 Ohioans. Seventy percent of the Bus' clinics were held in Ohio's most underserved counties where the ratio of attorneys to the county population is less than 1:700. The clinics provided brief advice and information for communities in need of civil legal services. The Bus operates across the state, including regularly recurring clinics in Adams, Ashtabula, Brown, Clermont, Delaware, Franklin, Hamilton, Montgomery, Sandusky, and Summit counties.

Volunteer attorneys provide legal advice at these events, addressing legal issues including divorce, custody, record sealing, certificates of qualification for employment, and driver's license reinstatement. In its effort to increase pro bono engagement in Ohio, the Foundation publicly promotes and recognizes pro bono efforts throughout the state to encourage and grow pro bono involvement. The Foundation works to find meaningful ways to engage the legal community starting at law school and continuing through retirement from active law practice. In collaboration with the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation recognizes graduating law students for their pro bono efforts with certificates of achievement and recognition at the bar admissions ceremony. The Foundation also administers and publishes an annual pro bono report which champions the successes of Ohio's pro bono lawyers.

To simplify access to volunteer opportunities, in FY25 the Foundation launched Pro Bono Ohio, a free and user-friendly website to locate statewide pro bono opportunities. The new site, which is maintained by the Foundation, allows attorneys to filter pro bono opportunities by area of law, level of service, and time commitment, so that attorneys can find an opportunity that fits their interests and schedule.

Each year, the Foundation presents an annual Presidential Award to recognize outstanding efforts to improve access to justice in Ohio. In 2025, the Foundation award went to Thomson Hine's Dayton office for its work with the Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Project to address the legal needs of individuals facing landlord-tenant disputes. The firm serves nearly 100 people every year and has significantly improved housing stability for low-income individuals and families in the greater Dayton area. During FY25, the Foundation also presented the Elam Award, which recognizes an attorney who selflessly donates their time and talent to pro bono causes. In 2025, the Elam Award went to the Honorable Mary Jane Trapp, who devoted her career to public service and encouraged pro bono volunteerism throughout the community.
