Ohioans Below 125% Poverty

IN 2024,

Ohio law firms gave generously to improve the health, stability, and financial security of low-income Ohioans.

VORYS, SATER, SEYMOUR AND PEASE LLP

a top firm by number of pro bono hours

“Pro bono is all of the small things. It’s the people who may not remember your name, but they were just happy that you were there to hold their hand on the day they were subject to eviction or other difficult life moments. They’re the most grateful people in the world for legal help, and there’s nothing more satisfying than that.”

- Rodney Holaday, partner at Vorys, and chair, pro bono committee
