Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Form 990, Part III, 4a Legal Services and Access to Justice Support: As the official, statewide entity recognized by the Supreme Court of Ohio for advancing access to justice, the Foundation collaborates with the Court and other statewide justice partners including the Ohio Judicial Conference, the Ohio State Bar Association, and Ohio's legal aids to make Ohio more just and equitable.

The Foundation is the largest funder of civil legal aid in Ohio. Civil legal aid provides skilled lawyers to assist Ohioans who are low-income or lack access, helping them address critical civil legal matters that impact their ability to live safe, stable, and financially secure lives. Through its grantmaking, the Foundation funds efforts that help veterans secure benefits they have earned through their service; enable seniors to maintain their independence and financial security; empower survivors of domestic violence to achieve safety and security; support families impacted by substance abuse disorders; and ensure children receive the educational services they need to succeed in school. Additionally, Foundation funding supports legal assistance for record sealing and drivers' license reinstatement efforts, which not only help individual Ohioans, but which strengthen Ohio's workforce.

In FY26, the Foundation oversaw distribution of $39.36 million in Interest on Lawyer's Trust Accounts (IOLTA), Interest on Trust Accounts (IOTA), and filing fee revenue, and granted out an additional $10 million from the Ohio Access to Justice Foundation Fund, thereby supporting legal services in Ohio with $49.36 million in funding. Over $1.9 million in grants was directed to helping newly arrived Ukrainians who fled the war in Ukraine stabilize themselves and their families in Ohio. As a result of the Foundation's funding, Ohio's civil legal service nonprofits succeeded in providing legal information, advice, or representation in over 83,000 civil matters and assisted over 213,000 Ohioans, including 90,000 children, 22,000 persons with disabilities, 5,100 veterans, and 23,000 seniors.

The Foundation also furthers its mission to improve access to justice by innovating services to help Ohioans facing legal challenges. The Foundation is the single, largest funder of Ohio Legal Help, an independent nonprofit organization which operates a state-of-the-art web portal that provides all Ohioans with meaningful access to reliable legal information and trustworthy legal referrals. Ohio Legal Help is available 24 hours a day in all 88 counties. During FY26, Ohio Legal Help served over 802,000 Ohioans across the state.

The Foundation also operates the Ohio Justice Bus; a mobile civil legal office and technology hotspot that delivers brief advice clinics to low-income Ohioans in rural and other areas with limited access to civil legal services. See Schedule O, Part III, 4c, Pro Bono and Ohio Justice Bus for additional details.

During FY26, the Foundation established the Access to Justice Initiatives Committee to ensure that Ohioans who are low-income or who lack access can fully and fairly participate in civil systems that produce just outcomes. The Committee coordinates work to assess unmet civil legal needs, identify barriers to access, and evaluate and develop proposals for systemic improvements that better meet or reduce civil legal challenges. The Committee also facilitates collaboration among key stakeholders, including the judiciary, the bar, legal aid, and other civil legal service providers, law schools, community partners, and additional partners.

The Committee convened its first meeting in February 2026 and began identifying priority legal issues and strategies, forming three working groups to focus on identified strategies: Government Advocacy, Regional Access to Justice Advocacy, and Self-Help Resources.

Through Neighborhood Stabilization Grants, the Foundation promotes both development and redevelopment in targeted Ohio communities. Since 2017, the Foundation has awarded $16.2 million to support transactional legal work that empowers Ohioans and community groups to revitalize their neighborhoods. Neighborhood Stabilization grants have historically supported new business development, the implementation of solar power, and the restoration of affordable housing. Beginning in FY25, the Foundation's Neighborhood Stabilization grant program entered its second phase, expanding its focus to statewide housing needs, supporting affordable and healthy housing initiatives, and promoting homeownership in partnership with legal aid and other community partners. The Foundation also continues to fund non-housing Neighborhood Stabilization projects through general funding opportunities.

In addition to its grants to organizations, the Foundation also offers two-year Justice for All Fellowships to outstanding law graduates who are passionate about public service and determined to address emergent legal needs. These young lawyers serve at civil legal service organizations across Ohio. Fellows focus their work on civil legal issues which adversely impact Ohioans who are low-income or who lack access to civil legal services. In FY26, Justice for All Fellows advanced critical access to justice efforts across multiple regions in Ohio and a variety of practice areas. Fellows assisted victims of predatory and fraudulent auto-lending and sales practices; represented unaccompanied minors in court proceedings; created accessible user-centered legal content, forms, and tools for formerly incarcerated Ohioans; supported rural Ohioans and Spanish-speaking Ohioans with housing-related legal issues, provided legal assistance to homeless Ohioans, and worked with children and families through a school partnership.

The Foundation also funds the Justice for All Summer Clerkship program which provides law students with hands-on experience in civil legal services by funding summer clerk positions at civil legal services organizations. This initiative helps cultivate the next generation of public interest lawyers while helping meet the critical legal needs of low-income Ohioans.

To support the recruitment and retention of talented civil legal aid attorneys, the Foundation additionally administers a Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP). The Foundation's LRAP provides up to $6,000 annually in educational loan repayment assistance to qualifying civil legal services attorneys. In FY26, 79 participants received more than $336,000 in assistance for federal and private educational loans, reducing financial barriers and supporting attorneys in continuing their commitment to providing critical legal services to low-income Ohioans.

Thanks to the generous support of the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation continues to expand and improve Ohio Legal Help, strengthen Ohio's civil legal aid organizations, and work to increase pro bono engagement across the state.

Beyond its longstanding core grant programs, the Foundation also continued two initiatives launched in FY25: a $1.245 million general operating grant program supporting civil legal service nonprofits, and a $760,000 grant program designed to address the legal needs of documented immigrants. These programs remained integral components of the Foundation's broader efforts to strengthen civil legal services and expand access to justice statewide.

The Foundation also oversees the administration of other grant funds directed at supporting Ohio's civil legal aid societies and furthering access to justice. This work ensures that grant funding is used effectively to help Ohioans who are low-income or who lack access overcome legal challenges so they can attain safety, stability, and financial security. The Foundation captures measurable data through its grant reporting, which is used to continually improve legal services and diminish the justice gap.

Finally, the Foundation serves as an advocate by educating state and national legislators and the public about the transformative role of civil legal aid in people's lives. The Foundation is honored to partner with Ohio's courts, bar associations, businesses, governmental agencies, social service agencies, and others to build statewide awareness of and support for civil legal aid and access to justice in Ohio.

Form 990, Part III, 4c, Pro Bono and Ohio Justice Bus
The Foundation is also a catalyst for developing new statewide and local pro bono initiatives like Pro Bono Ohio, a single, statewide site that allows lawyers to find pro bono opportunities across Ohio and the Ohio Justice Bus (the Bus), a mobile civil legal office and technology hotspot which helps rural and low-income Ohioans through brief advice clinics.

Through a generous grant from the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation works at the statewide level to increase pro bono participation in delivering civil legal services to low-income Ohioans. One of the successful statewide pro bono initiatives developed by the Foundation is the Ohio Justice Bus. During FY26, the Ohio Justice Bus held 101 clinics serving over 600 Ohioans. Roughly half of the Bus's clinics were held in Ohio's most underserved counties, defined as counties with fewer than one attorney per 1,500 residents. The Bus operates across the state, including regularly recurring clinics in Adams, Brown, Clermont, Delaware, Franklin, Hamilton, Montgomery, and Summit counties. At the clinics, volunteer attorneys provide legal advice on legal issues including divorce, custody, record sealing/expungement, and driver's license reinstatement as well as preparing end-of-life documents including wills, powers of attorney, and advance directives.

The Foundation advances pro bono engagement statewide by publicly promoting and recognizing pro bono service to encourage broader participation across the legal community. Its efforts focus on creating meaningful pathways for involvement beginning in law school and continuing through retirement from active practice. In collaboration with the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation recognizes graduating law students for their pro bono contributions with certificates of achievement and recognition at the bar admissions ceremony. The Foundation also administers and publishes an annual pro bono report highlighting the impact and successes of Ohio's pro bono lawyers.

To simplify access to volunteer opportunities, the Foundation continues to maintain Pro Bono Ohio, a free and user-friendly website to locate statewide pro bono opportunities. The site allows attorneys to filter pro bono opportunities by area of law, level of service, and time commitment, so that attorneys can find an opportunity that fits their interests and schedule.

Each year, the Foundation presents the Elam Award, which recognizes an attorney who selflessly donates their time and talent to pro bono causes. In 2026, the Elam Award went to Gregory Reichenbach, who devotes his career to fighting predatory consumer practices targeting low-income Ohioans, training attorneys for both Legal Aid of Southeast and Central Ohio and Legal Aid of Western Ohio as well as taking full representation pro bono cases for legal aid.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
The Foundation's Audit Committee, as charged by the Foundation Board, reviews and approves a final draft of the 990. The full Board receives and reviews the 990 prior to the 990 being signed and filed with the IRS. The Foundation's most recently filed 990 is posted on its website.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
The Foundation's conflict of interest policy and procedures extends to all Directors and Officers, who must annually complete and sign "The Ohio Access to Justice Foundation Annual Business Relationship and Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form." Determinations of whether an actual conflict exists are made by the Board through a majority vote which excludes the vote of a potentially conflicted Director. No Director or Officer may preside over, vote on, or participate in any deliberation of any matter in which such Director or Officer has a conflict or potential conflict of interest.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:
The Executive Committee of the Board reviews the Executive Director's performance and compensation annually. As a basis for comparison, the committee reviews executive director compensation for comparable nonprofit organizations in Ohio and nationally through composite salary surveys. The Board meets in executive session at a duly called meeting and, per the recommendation of the Executive Committee, approves any salary increases for the Executive Director.
